*O*ne feeling in particular that you get at Regina is Friendship:
F is for the fantastic people you meet here,
R is for rowdie,
I is for intelligence,
E is for everlasting friendship,
N is for new friends here,
D is for being able to depend on people here,
S is for sharing,
H is for happiness,
I is for improvement, which you have to allow yourself to enjoy, P is for the perfect knowledge we learn here, about life, friends, and academic subjects.

-Sharon Carvill

*Stay with me . . .
I need your friendship as I search for life, love and happiness.
Help me . . .
find the right direction,
for I know in the past
I have gotten lost.*

-Carole Parker

*Smile a ray of sunshine,
Laugh a bright bouquet,
Sing a pretty rainbow,
Dream a happy day.
Share a friendly visit,
Think of lovely things,
Fill your heart with all the love and joy that friendship brings!*

-Linda Wojciechowski

*Laughter, sorrow, happiness, sadness, hate, and love are all feelings we share with and among each other.
Friendship is a feeling of happiness that fills the halls of Regina. We depend on our friends for almost everything we do. There is also sadness, but it is always recovered by our friends. When we're down, our friends cheer us up, and soon we're all laughing again. It seems that friendship is a feeling we all should need and cherish. Without it, life would not be worthwhile.*

-Kim Handloser

*Remember the way we were . . .
I used to dream that I controlled time, that I could stop its hands at my wish or command.
I wanted to stop the clock when times were happy,
and push it ahead when times were sad.
I realize now that past tears make present
laughter more joyful, and past laughter makes present sorrow
more bearable.
Hand in hand, they make life what it is.
I'll always remember the sorrows we have shared, and the joys we doubled, which could not have been if it weren't for friends.
They have helped me define the "me" that I am, by growing with me in such sensitive times.
I may not always recall the time and the places,
I'll probably forget some names and some faces,
but portions of me can never be lost.
Though we will separate and time will fly by,
We won't be afraid to let it go freely.
No matter how far we go in time and space,
we will never feel empty or hopeless, if we always remember, but don't try to cling to,
the beautiful, sensitive way that we were.*

-Theresa Launi

Feelings . . . what are they?
Maybe a tender, wet tear or a quivering smile . . . a feeling of pride as you swear to be a true Reginite . . . the good times you have shared with your big sister.*

Unity . . . as you pick your class colors and song . . . the feeling of sophistication as you slip your class ring on your finger.

*Sentimental . . . as you join in on Powderpuff, realizing that time is running out fast.
Trying to make every precious moment count, not letting one second pass you by, as you start the countdown . . . dancing under the mistletoe at Christmas Ball.*

Remembering all the silly things you have done throughout the past four years . . . wondering if you'll ever have as much fun.

Growing . . . and with growth there is change . . . sad that it is over, but knowing that the end has to come.

Time cannot stand still, and we wouldn't want it to. We have to stretch our wings and soar through the unadventured skies, not knowing what is ahead . . . but hoping that it is as fulfilling as the past.

*REGINITE . . . what's that?
A name? No, it's a feeling . . . of belonging, loving, and learning.*

-Paula Brownlee

*H*appiness cannot be bought or sold,
 It's a blessing given to young and old.
 Happiness is a state of mind,
 granted to people whose thoughts are kind.
 It can be found in the smallest of things,
 a warm smile, a thought, a bird that sings.
 Happiness is remembering the good times of the past,
 and knowing that they all slipped by too fast.
 It's having friends that we choose,
 the game we knew we couldn't lose.
 It's being rowdie on the last day of school, frizzing your hair, and acting like a fool.
 The excitement we felt on Powderpuff Day,
 when we were happy in every way.
 It's funny how happiness is in little things,
 we chuckle from the joy remembering brings.
 Like getting into trouble, being caught by a nun, then taking off in a 100 m.p.h. RUN!!

-Dana DeBusschere

Feelings come to conquer thoughts, woven into lives to intertwine the threads of those who grow.*

*Growing off to paths we find, till travelled far beyond in time,
they separate the threads and leave the knots behind the strands of yesterday, the feelings shared, to live with new tomorrows . . .*

-Marie Pitassi

A CADEMIC

Office Staff works hard for Reginites

"Ping, Ping, Ping goes the typewriter; Ring, Ring, Ring goes the bell, that is all I hear, nine months out of a year, except an occasional yell..."

Sister Leanne often sings while at work, but do you ever listen to the words? When the bell rings, you can hear a sigh of relief coming from the office staff. Some of the remarks are...

"I thought it would never end," meaning—"If the day isn't over soon, I'm going to blow my stack."

And a favorite, "I hope they come back with Smiles," meaning—by the end of the day, everyone's grouchy, upset, confused, and frustrated.

Don't be surprised when someday, someone, comes to you and says, "Smile, you're entering Regina High."

FACES, OPPOSITE PAGE, TOP TO BOTTOM: Sister Mary Leanne, Principal; Sister Mary Hyacinth, Assistant Principal; Sister Mary Thaddea, Treasurer; Mrs. Veronica Teli, Secretary.

ABOVE: Looks like Sister Hyacinth has a lot of work to catch up on. Sister Leanne is making sure of it.

LEFT: Wouldn't you know, treasurers always have that fulfilled look on their faces. Sr. Thaddea proves it.

FAR LEFT: Who just left the office of Sister Hyacinth? Who ever did gave her a cheerful thought to think about.

Looking for help?

Drop in, say hi!

The school has a new Guidance and Career Education Center that was just finished this summer. You feel right at home when you enter the Guidance Center. The counselors are so helpful to the students in what they want to do, or to talk out their problems. The lobby has very relaxing chairs that make you feel cozy and comfortable. The atmosphere of the rooms are so pleasant that the students are encouraged to "open up."

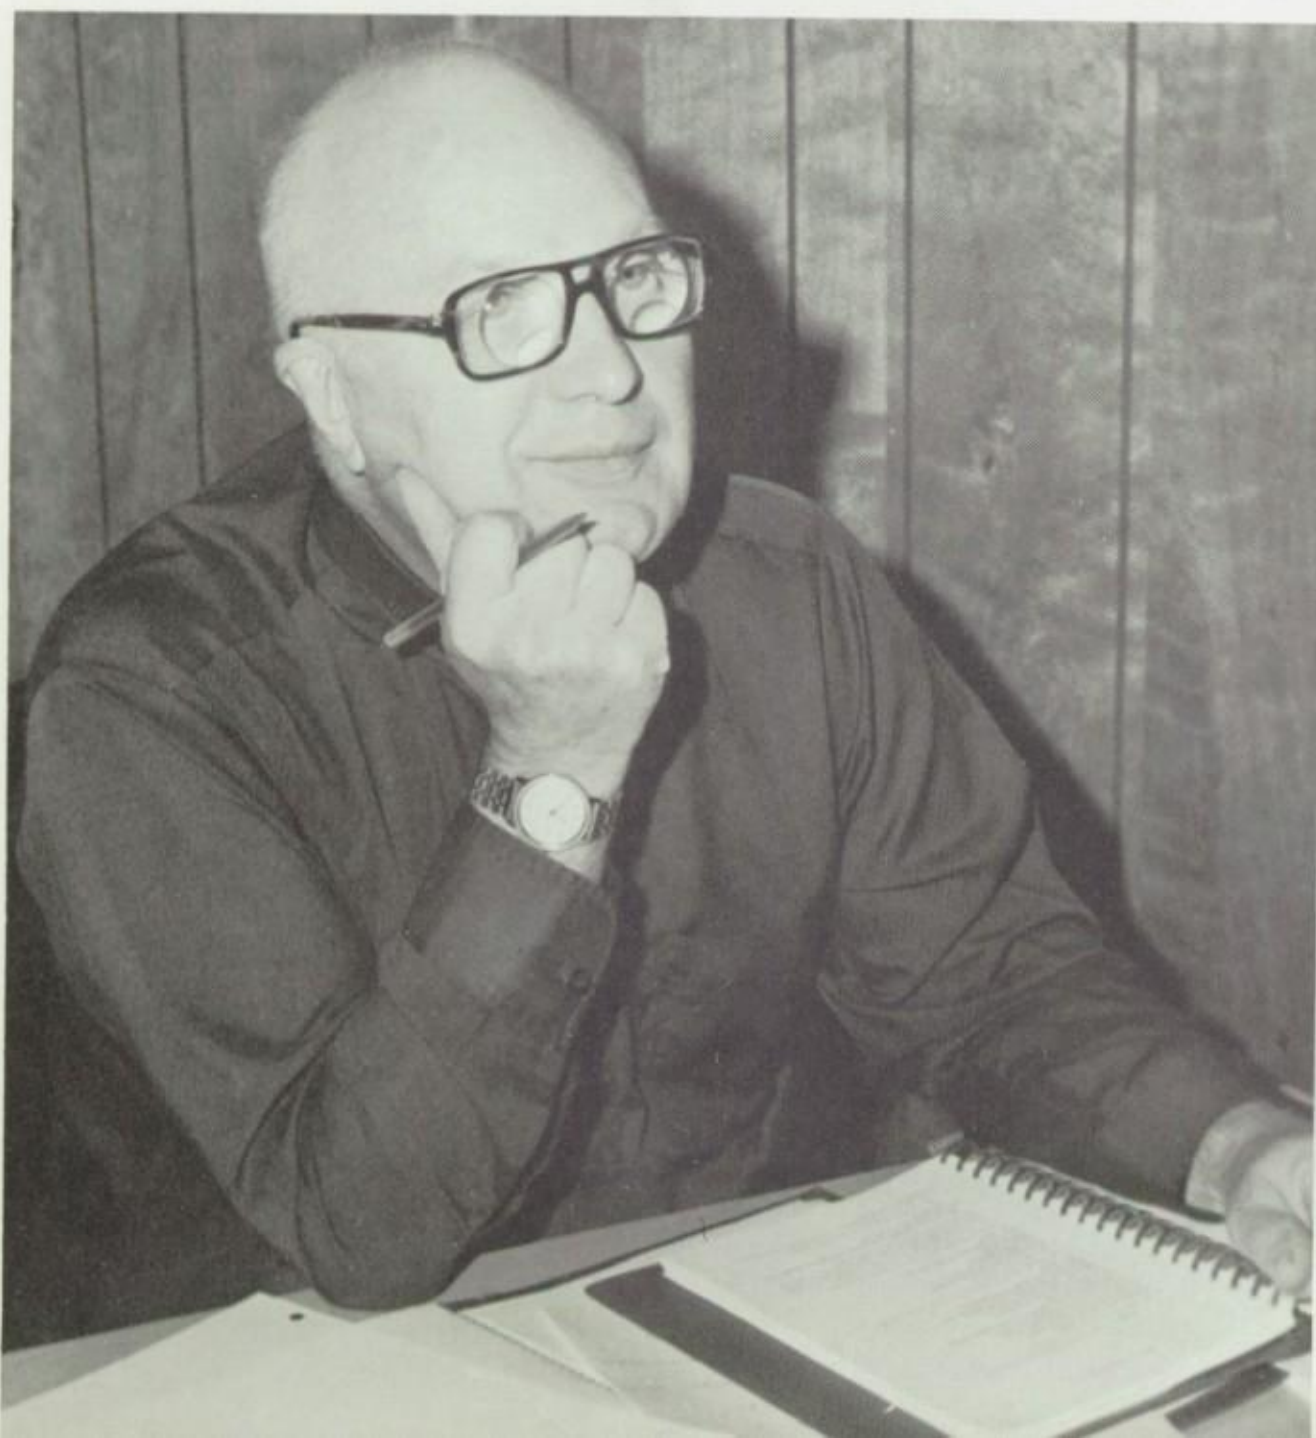

The Career room aids in deciding the job you want for the future. If you're undecided, you can just browse around for information.

The students enjoy having the Guidance and Career Education Center. They can go there to talk out their problems, or just for an enjoyable visit. The students sometimes go in just to say "Hi." The Guidance Center is so helpful, and a great convenience to all of us. Regina cares not only for the physical well-being of the students, but also their emotional well-being.

FAR LEFT: Miss Laffey and Kim Geldhof are looking over her school file. Been bad?

ABOVE RIGHT: Sr. Esther is writing down comments on how these Freshmen like Regina. Pam LaRue, Regina Lesinski, and Sheryl Nischalke say they like it very much.

LEFT: Father Ed is daydreaming again, while he should be working! We're going to tell!

Old & new authors are appreciated by students of Regina

What do you think about Regina's English Department? That was the question asked to some people in this school.

A senior said that she liked English, and it is her favorite subject, so she thought Regina's English Department was great. A junior said, "No Comment." One sophomore replied, "English is a great learning experience, and I love the variety of classes." A Frosh who has Sister Edith said, "I love her tongue twisters!" A teacher included in our survey said, "The English Department has a little something for everyone."

The Departments in this school are changing. New faces, new names, new ideas, but most of all, new goals.

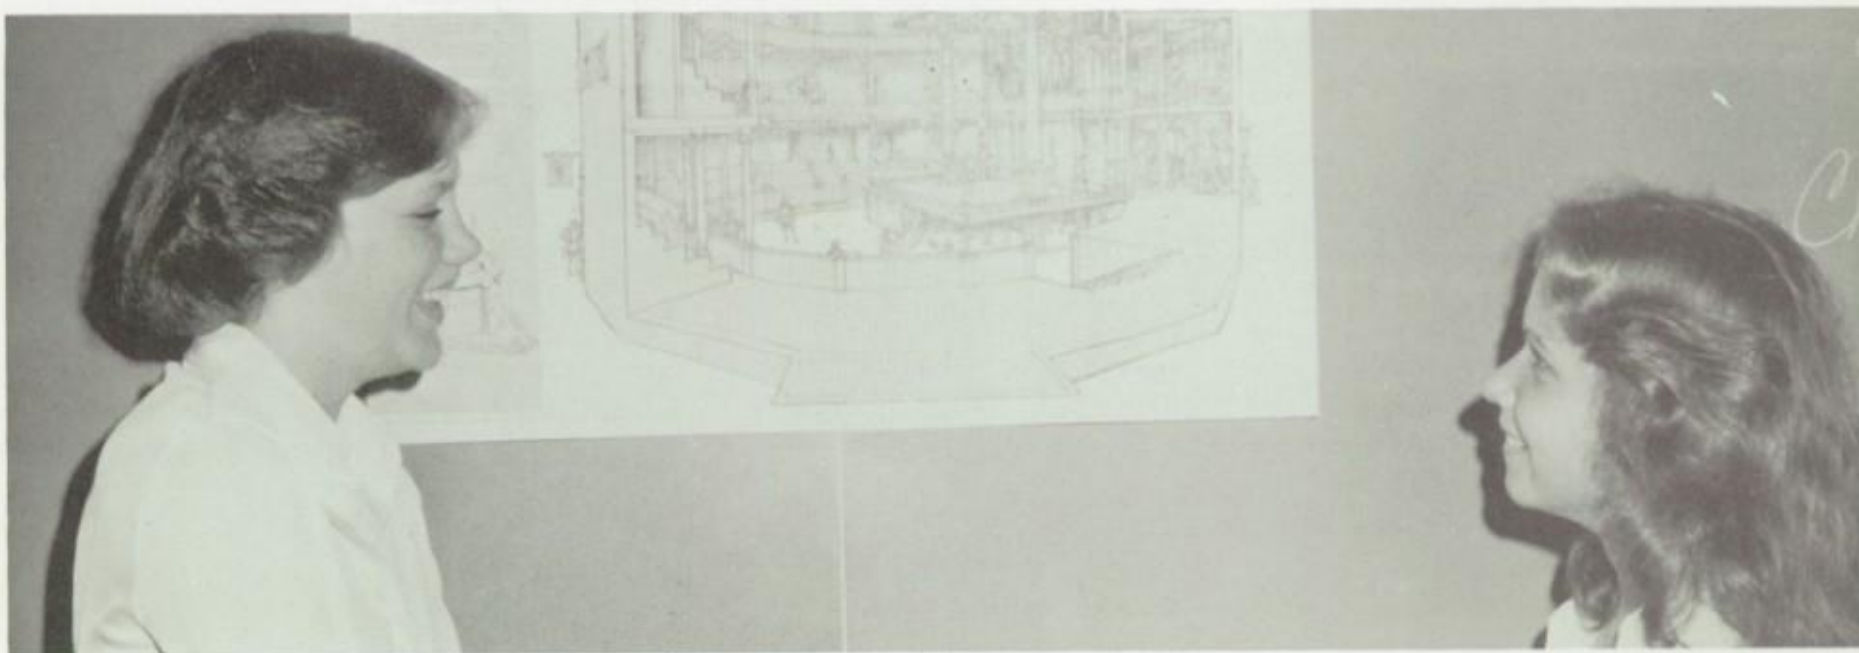

Miss Moser, the new chairperson of the English Department, has brought fresh ideas

Reginities translate 'love' into many languages

FAR RIGHT: Mrs. Roszka's French II class is happy to sing a jolly song at Christmas.

RIGHT: Ada Valentine, hearing the bell, can't wait to get out of this Foreign Language class; translating the "EXIT DOOR?"

ABOVE: Mademoiselle Debbie Sertyn waits patiently for someone to taste her crepes.

FACES, ABOVE: Miss Barbara Gerard, Foreign Language Department Head; Mrs. Carol Roszka, Miss Elisabetta Bucci; Mrs. Helena Izydorek.

While walking down the hall, you may see a group of girls coming out of a classroom saying something absurd. You can make a sure bet they are coming out of a Foreign Language class. The Foreign Language classes are taught to promote cultural understanding. All the students are taught a basic knowledge of listening, speaking, reading, and writing. The F.L. classes also help students learn many things about different lands, and the differences between those and the U.S.A. So, the next time you see some girls saying something you don't understand, ask them what they're saying, and hope it's nothing "bad"!

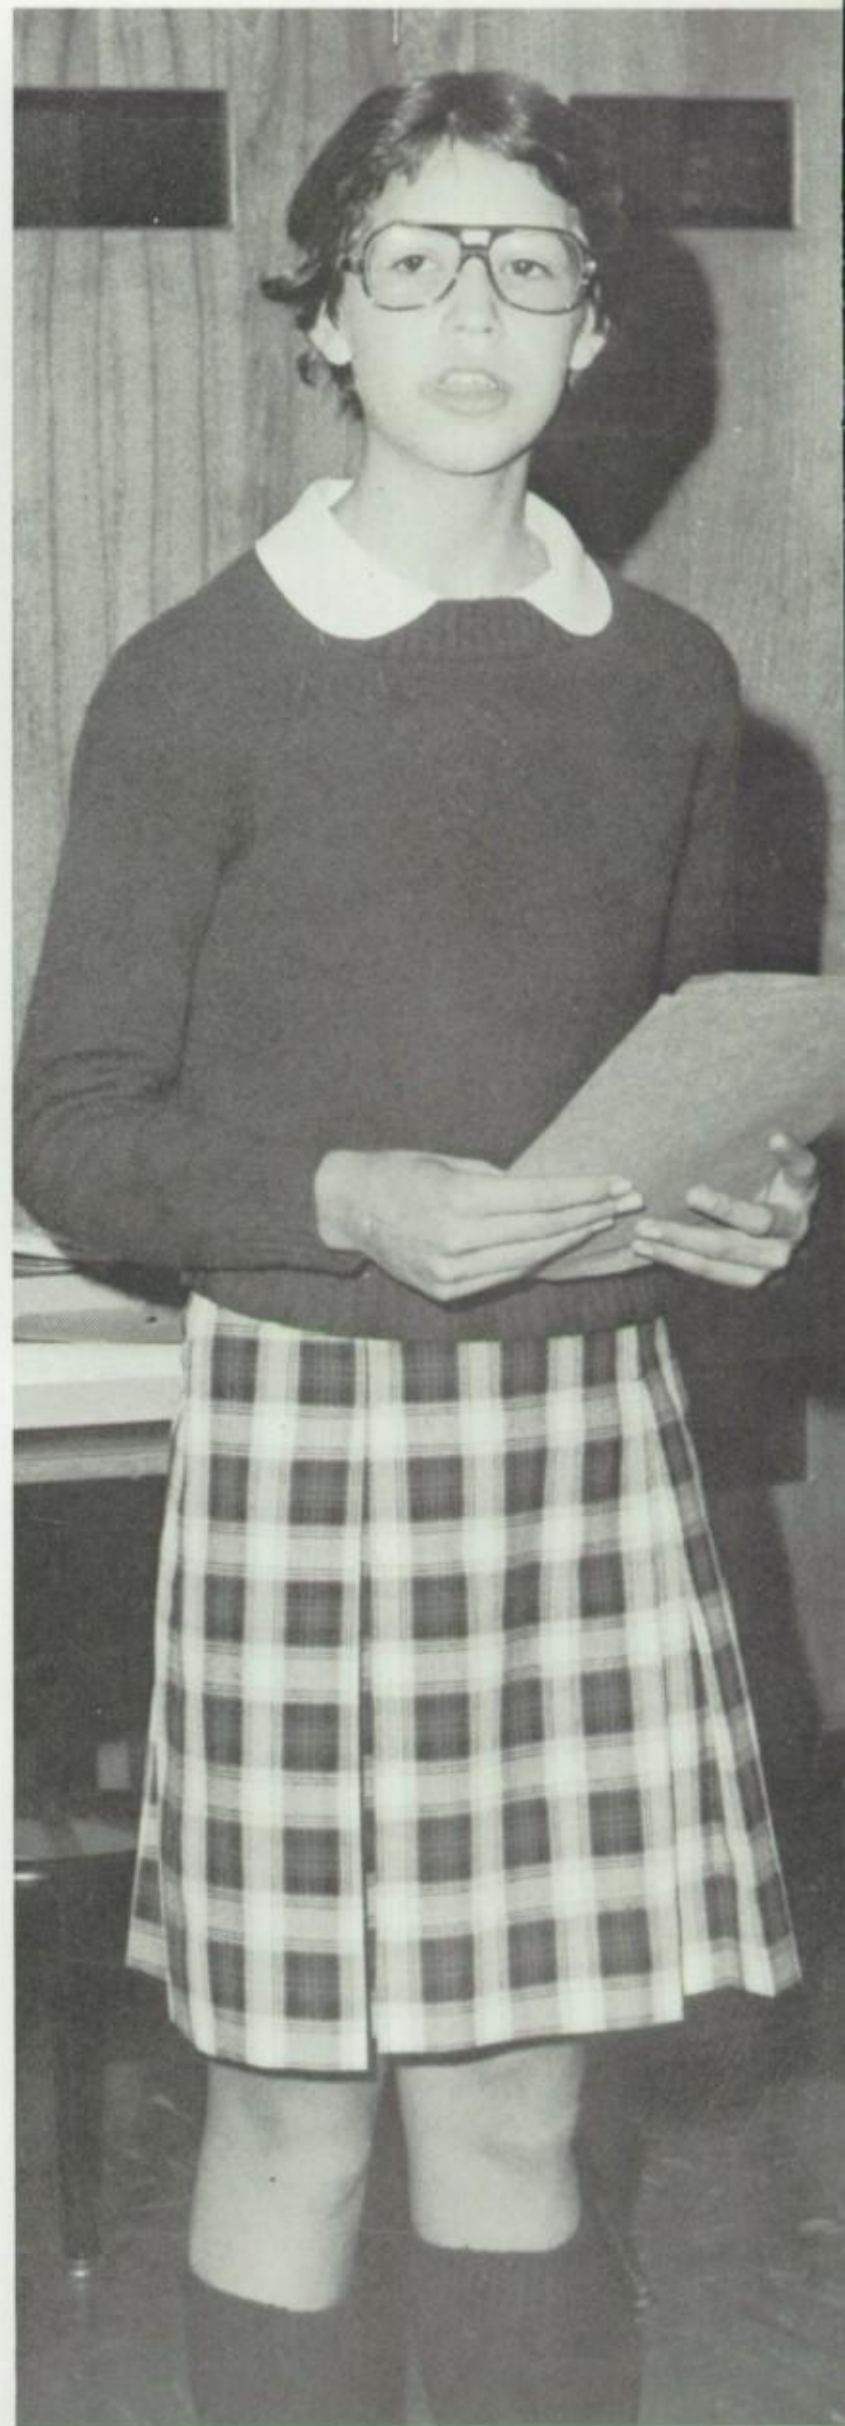

Speech and Reading add variety to students' life

In centuries long ago, words were discovered. They were made into sentences, chapters, and books with hard covers. When Regina came into the picture, Reading and Speech were a specialty.

When machines came to Regina, it made reading a little easier to learn. By increasing the speech, and enlarging the vocabulary, students became smarter and were able to learn more.

While the readings got better, the speeches did also. More information was found from different types of books, to make speeches of much interest. The creativeness of the students is shown by the interesting imagination each student presents in oral interpretations.

ABOVE: "I can't get the machine to work!" says Michael Denas. "Try plugging it in," snickers her friend.
LEFT: "Hey, there really are Snoopy comicstrips in this book" exclaims Marianne Pica to Chris Hotts and Caroline Foster.

Students see Religion as life to be lived; not a lesson to be learned

Did you ever think that most of your life is done with your hands?

Well, here at Regina this is a constant thing. If it weren't for our hands, how would we learn or do the things that life wants from us? We would all be very helpless.

Look at your hands for a moment. Those hands can do many great things. With them you can pray, knit a sweater, and even throw a football. With them you can destroy, or build. With your hands you can work for the whole community, and also for Christ.

Look at those hands of yours again! Hands that sustain life. Hands that can do the work of Christ, in school, out with friends, and also at dances. Hands working together to reshape a world torn by discrimination, plagued with war, and shamed with crime.

Now, pick up your pen and allow your hand to transcribe your thoughts.

RIGHT: Feeling the music during the mass is accompanist Tracy Angott, on base.

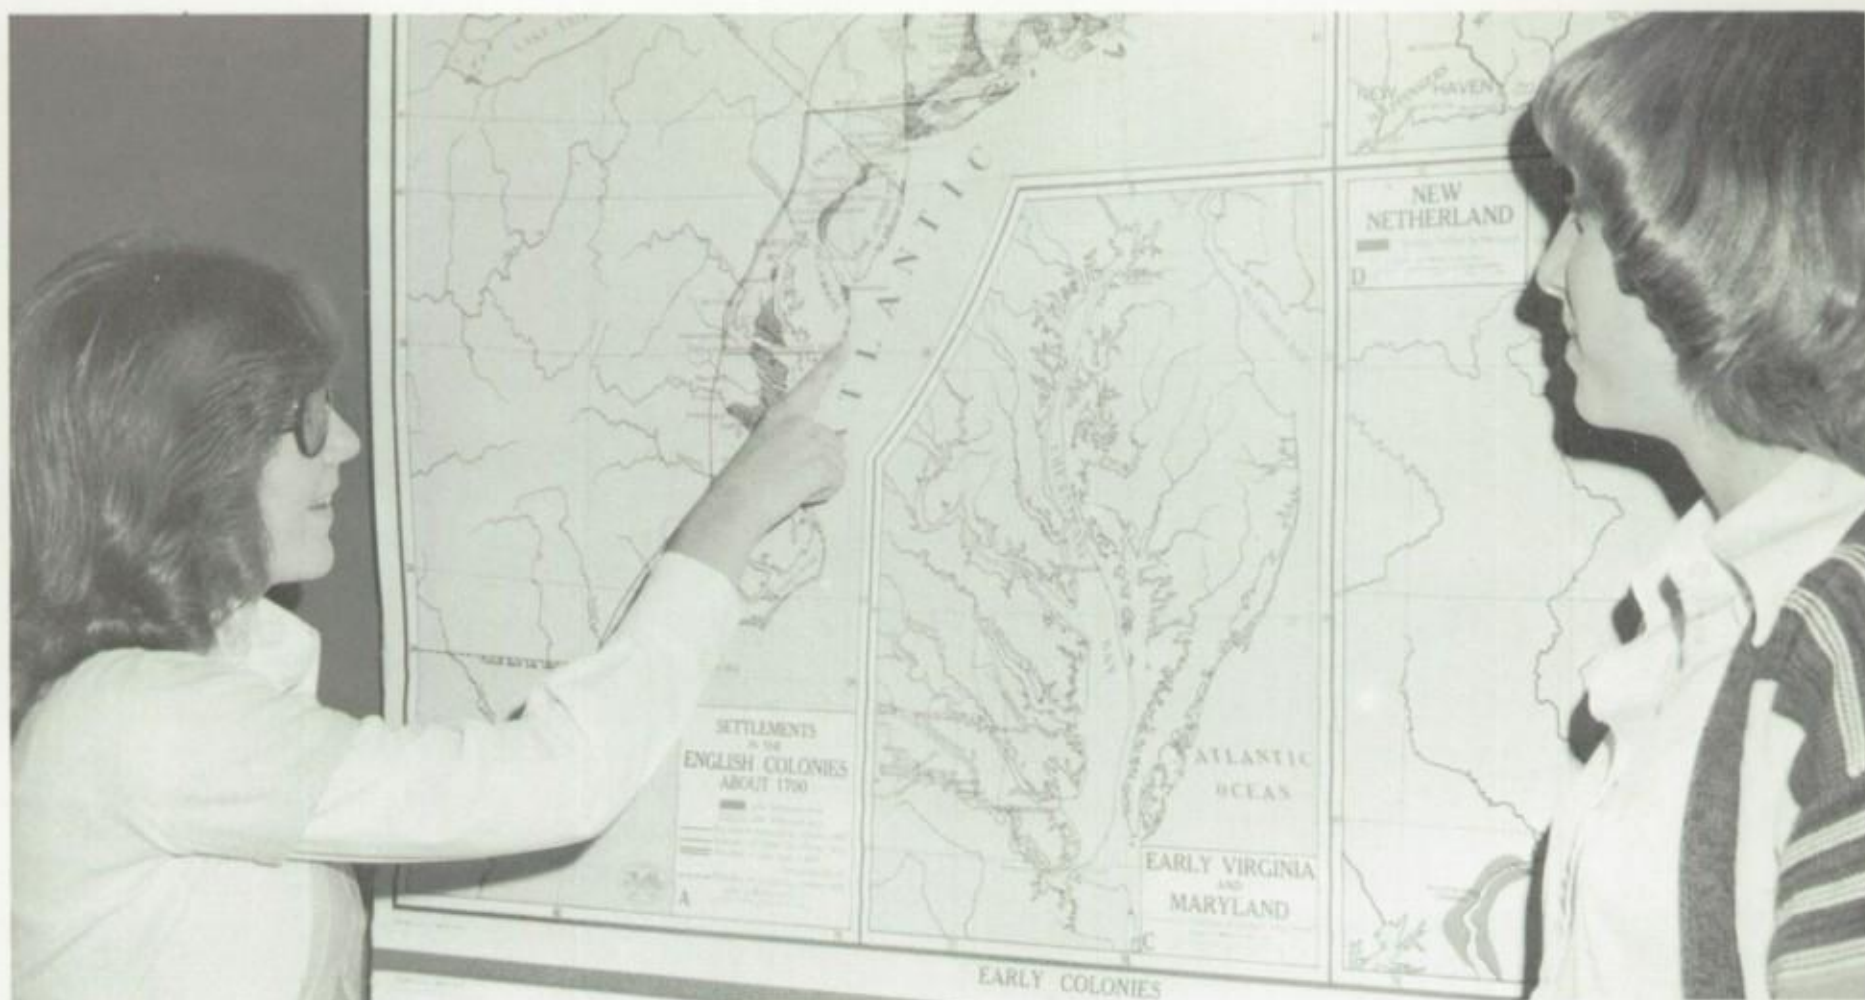

BELOW FAR RIGHT: Accompanying the mass is guitarist, Mr. Nehring, and Sonja Haas. Sue Reedy is singing.

FACES, ABOVE: Mrs. Jane Gleason, Theology Department Head; Reverend Edward Scheuerman; Mr. Thomas Nehring; Mr. Carl Mansfield.

RIGHT: Sister Mary Beata, Department Head, Social Studies; Mrs. Christine Norris; Mrs. Flora Tersigni; Mrs. Carole Wiseman.

Field of history aims to conquer this world through social studies

What in the world would we ever do without social studies? There are many things you know or want to know about History. How would we have ever known that it takes wings and an engine to fly the sky, rather than feathers and the strength of our arms? In History, we have learned that the Wright Brothers paved the way for aviation.

With the help of government, we are able to reach our goals in politics. We can someday become campaign managers, speakers, representatives, or senators. Someday one Reginite may even become the president of the United States. That is, the very First woman president!

Without History, we would really be in the dark. We would have never known that Poland or any other country had existed. Our nationality and heritage would never have been noticed. We are, therefore, grateful to Benjamin Franklin for beginning the public libraries, and the written history of the world available to all people.

ABOVE: Did you ever want to know how to work a film projector? Well, in Sister Beata's class you have no choice, as Sister Beata shows Kim Olejniczak, Kathy Jepsen, and Lynn Kucharek in Regional Studies.

LEFT: Ernest Browne comes to Regina High School to try and convince seniors to vote for him.

BELOW FAR LEFT: Marianne Nannini watches the expression on Angela Manto's face, as she looks amazed at what's in her book!

ABOVE FAR LEFT: Can you believe Chris Stevens still doesn't know where the "Delaware" is, as Mary Teli points it out?

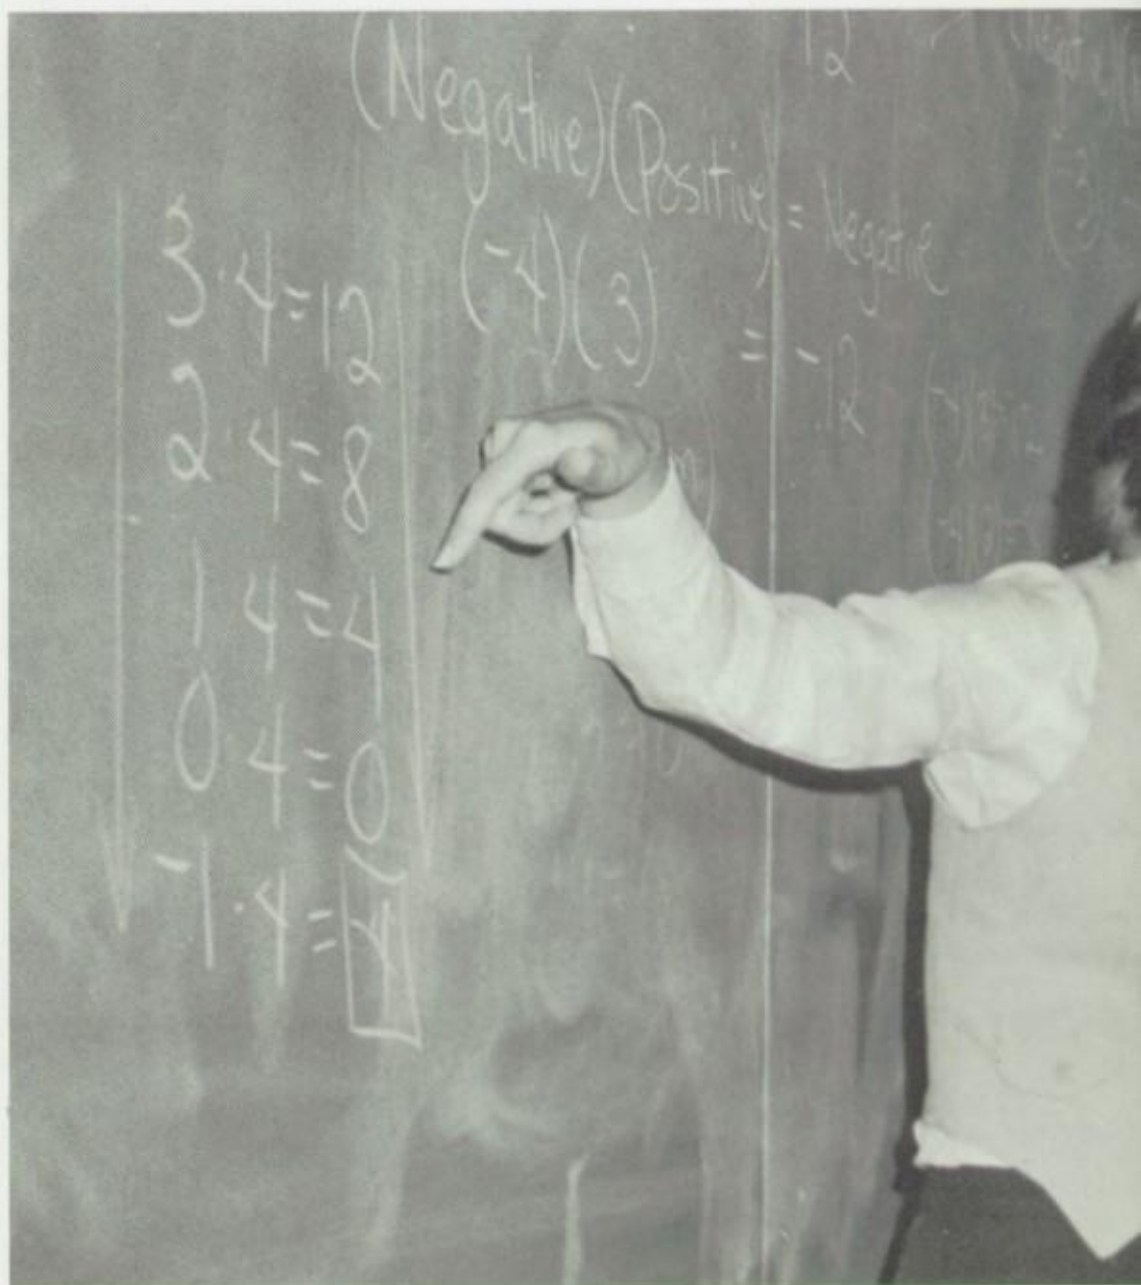

We are practicing the “metric step”!

Happiness is: when you are asked if you know the answer to a problem, and you do know the answer.

Sadness is: when you don't understand how to get an answer to a problem, and you don't ask for help.

Joy is when you try your hardest, and finally get the right answer.

All these are feelings, and all are experienced at Regina High in the Math department. Be happy when you know the answer, don't be sad when you don't know the answer, but ask for help. Try, and keep on trying till you succeed. The teachers of this department try hard to help everyone reach their goal. In the Math department, there are different sections such as: Calculus, Algebra, and Geometry. The Algebra section has two different parts; Algebra I, and Honors Algebra.

BELOW: Donna Lucas and Chris Kotenko listen carefully. Then Mrs. Johnson pops the question, "What property are we using here?"

LEFT: Hilde Jerius questions Kathy DeBaker, "did your calculator get the same answer?", while "calculating" senior Rosemarie Damiani listens in.

FAR LEFT: This was a Math presentation made at Regina's Open House?? Laura Ansell pulled Suzette De-Schryver out of a hat, mathematically?

FACES, BELOW: Sister Mary Terence, Mathematics Department Head; Sister Gretchen; Miss Patricia Michalak; Mrs. Kathryn Johnson.

RIGHT: Teresa Valentine and Judy Krencicki sing "the knee-bone connected to the thigh, the thigh bone connected to the hip bone, the hip bone connected to the..."

BELOW RIGHT: "George" tells Donna Lozon and Lori Piotrowski... "George is my name, and internal organs are my game."

BELOW FAR RIGHT: Miss Gaipa watches as Joan Stepien, Ann Marie Teli, and Michele LaMont, add a little of this and a little bit of that.

Happiness is . . . a science class with new supplies and electrosopes!

This year the science department added Electrosopes and Glavameters to the science equipment. These new instruments help teach us about the Science World, from tiny ants to the big wide universe. With new Electrosopes and Glavameters, a class has a large range of experimental projects that students can work on, to draw conclusions from. The science room is very fascinating. By the window, there are instruments to use. The science room has a lot of equipment. The equipment is for the students' use.

In the science rooms, there are books, so you can usually find what you're looking for. If you can't find what you're looking for, if it's not in the books, if it's not in the papers, if your friends can't help, Don't Worry! The teacher's always there!

The School Psychologist, Speech Therapist, and Social Worker add to Regina's staff

Sometimes "coping" isn't a happy word. Pressures, frustrations, and problems that the environment creates are sometimes very difficult to cope with. Besides the counselors, who are trained to deal with coping behaviors, Regina also utilizes the services of Harper Woods School Psychologist, Mr. Chris Bell. Also, to deal with physical problems such as speech therapy, professional staff are available.

Many students, who are planning a medical office career after graduation, are prepared for the job during their years in high school through the Medical Office Assistant program. Medical vocabulary and assistance in administering shots, blood pressure tests, and many more medical subjects are taught.

LEFT: The Speech Therapist, Laura Fucinari, offers professional assistance to Regina.

FAR LEFT: Mrs. Elizabeth Paravano, Social Worker, adds her valued help to the Counseling Dept.

BELOW FAR LEFT: Mr. Chris Bell, School Psychologist, offers his services to all public and private schools in Harper Woods. Here he discusses his somewhat complicated schedule with Sister Esther and Miss Laffey.

Business students are seriously figuring and striving for the future

"Taking care of business, everyday" is the theme song of Ms. Zuzga, Mr. Silva, and Mrs. Monterosso, Regina's fine business instructors. For that matter, students participating in the business program themselves work diligently. It makes no difference if the class is Typing I, Shorthand, or Accounting. Regina's business department offers many opportunities to participate in various aspects of the business world. Office situations are recreated, so the students may gain insight into proper office procedures and principles.

The business teachers put forth as much effort as the students. Ms. Zuzga averages about 540 papers to correct daily. She manages to keep up with this unbelievable rate of production, and does not mind the proofreading for the benefit of the students. Mr. Silva occupies much time checking over figures, those on accounting forms, of course, and stresses legibility on all papers. Shorthand students appear greatly inspired by Mrs. Monterosso's teaching. These girls are never seen without their steno notebooks.

Under the instruction of the teachers, the business students are adequately prepared for a job as an office assistant. All the skills and information learned have great value. The instructors do a fine job of transforming young ladies into mature businesswomen, ready for the world.

LEFT: Peggy Paula gets a late start on her typing, although the rest of the class doesn't seem to notice.

CENTER LEFT: Business on Monday morning is not always appealing to some Reginites. However, Roseanne Kopacki seems to enjoy taking notes.

BELOW: Sue Idziak displays her proper typing form while she strives to complete an aim.

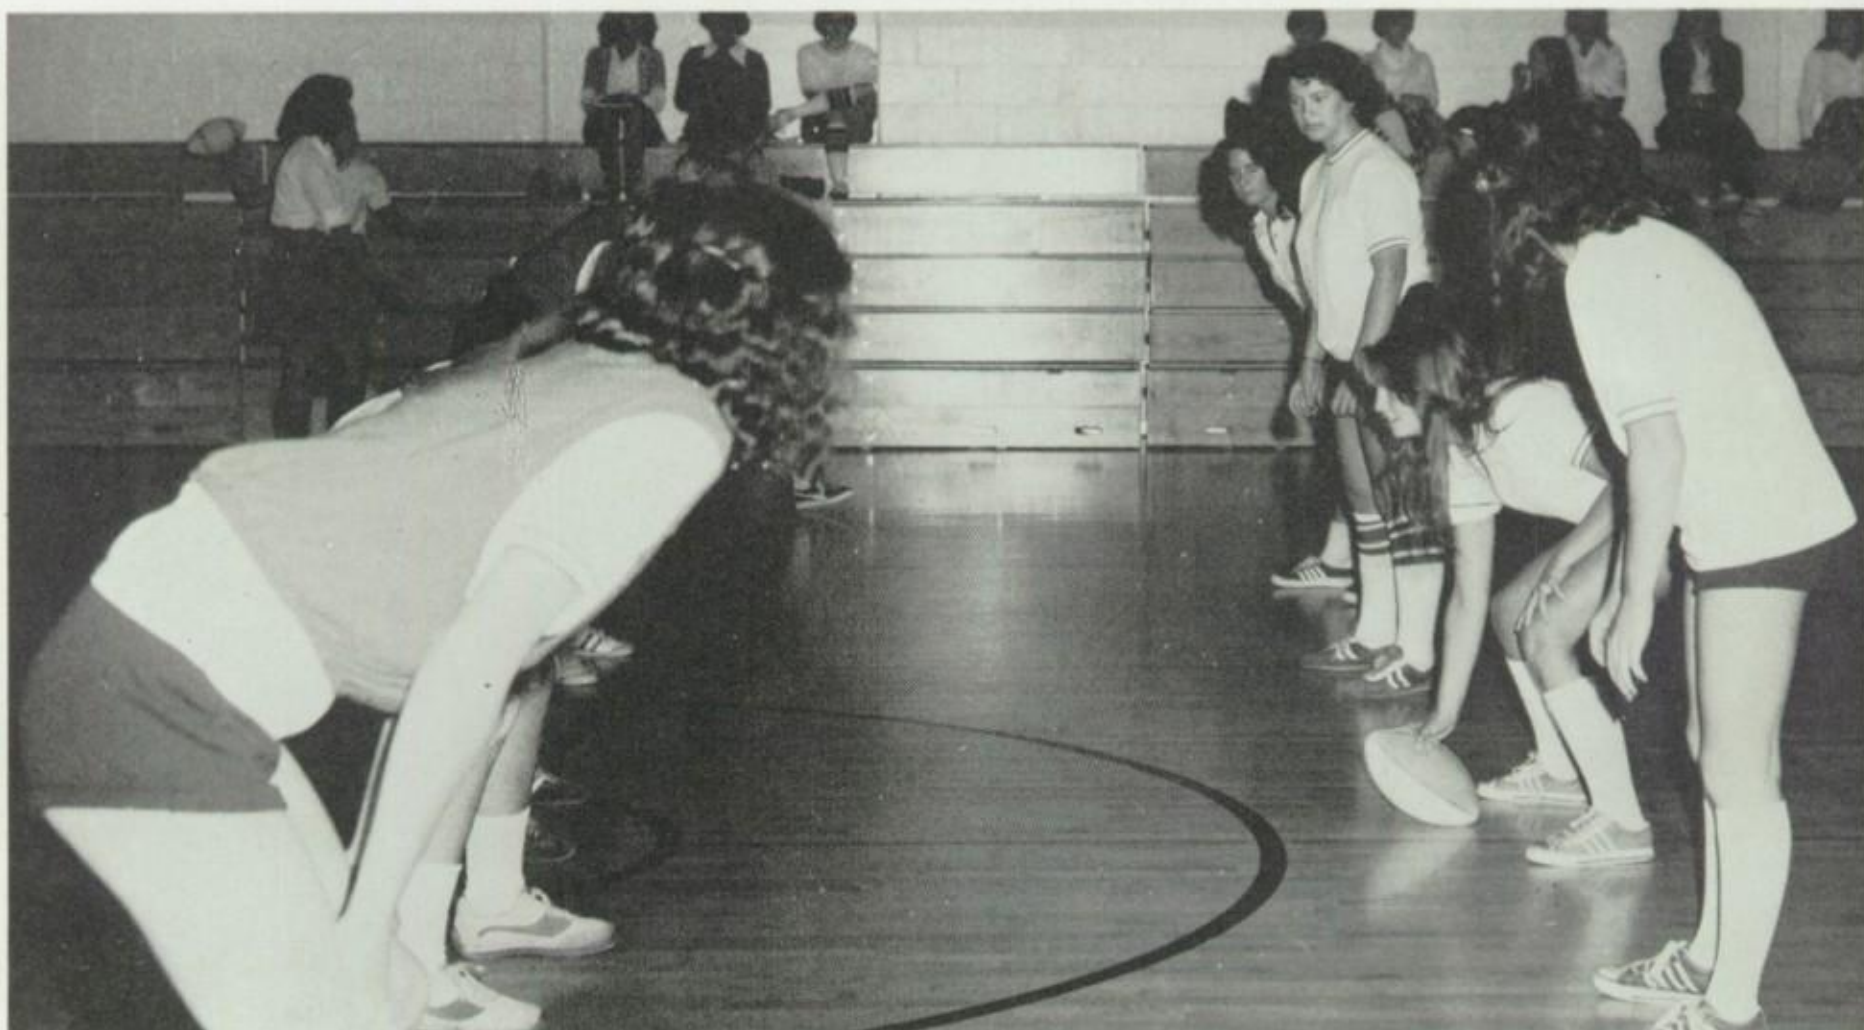

BOTTOM RIGHT: Sue Oshnock and Diane Klim race to see who will get the ball first.

BELOW: "OK...down...ready...get set...36, 24, 56, 72, hut, hut. Watch out team, because here we come!"

BELOW RIGHT: Here we have a nice game of football. "Sure hope you turkeys don't forget the good plans we made."

Have you ever been in one of Regina's gym classes? You'd see the teachers, with their referrals handy and whistles ready to call the play. You'd probably get lots of exercise on that day, because gym is active. Miss Kuhagen, Miss Laffey, Miss Mort, and Mrs. Kasper teach how to do it "just right", and keep Reginites physically fit. Unlike usual classes, gym is a nice break from sitting all day, giving students a chance to express their physical talents.

FACES, ABOVE: Miss Janice Kuhagen; Mrs. Lorraine Kasper; Miss Mort, Student teacher. NOTE: Miss Diane Laffey, pictured on page 14, is the Physical Education Department Head, and also teaches Physical Education classes.

C-ONSTANT rewards, satisfaction and work, all can be found in Home Ec.
S-ATISFYING to know that you did it by yourself, no one did it for you.

FACES, RIGHT: Mrs. Elsa Smith, Home Ec. Department Head; Mrs. Susan Koss.

LEFT: Sue DeSchryver and Kerri Primeau seem hard at work, as both think to themselves "It is like looking for a snake in the grass, following this thread's a pain in the #&$%?!"

FAR LEFT: "Kids are not the only ones who can have fun," says senior Mary Bousson.

ABOVE: Leslie Weil shows one of the kids in Home Ec. that you can clean the floor in a zoom, if you have a hand broom.

'Art, you have to have Art... all you really need is Art!'

The school began the art year with new supplies, new ideas, and new students. The school also added a new art teacher, Mr. Raymond Rutyna. He started the class right into art, he didn't keep the students waiting to start. The art department hopes to introduce basics to the new students, but also have the students who took courses work on more advanced, complicated art projects. The art department hopes that students who take art courses will gain an awareness of potential, creatively speaking, and the desire to continue developing their talent in more advanced classes. The art department is one of the best. There should be a little art in everybody's life.

ABOVE RIGHT: Sr. Lucinda and Pasquale A. Pompeo decide to retreat to the delivery room, after filling the candy machine with empty wrappers. We won't mention who ate what was inside the wrappers.

FAR RIGHT: Pasquale "Anchovies" Pompeo insists that he does have the cutest, little, baby face around. As you can see, he is having trouble getting his point across.

TOP LEFT CORNER: Fred prepares to lock himself in the cafeteria, in hopes that Mr. Pompeo won't find him.

BOTTOM FAR RIGHT: Mr. Pompeo wonders how they ever conned him into taking this job. But it's all worth it, after all!

The time, approximately 7:30 a.m., Pasquale Pompeo enters the building through the 400 wing door. He notices that they squeak and stick a little. He proceeds down the hall to the little room to the left of the 400 wing lavatory. Just as he's about to push the door open, it opens from the inside. Fred grunts a "good morning," and stands aside.

The time, approximately 7:55 a.m. Joseph Pompeo enters the building through the same doors his son passed through 25 minutes before. (He is older and smarter and avoids the crowded halls.) He meets up in the same room with Pat. (Fred, having more initiative, is already sweeping down the halls). Pat and Mr. Pompeo make their rounds checking the heating, replacing lights, fixing windows and doing anything else that needs doing.

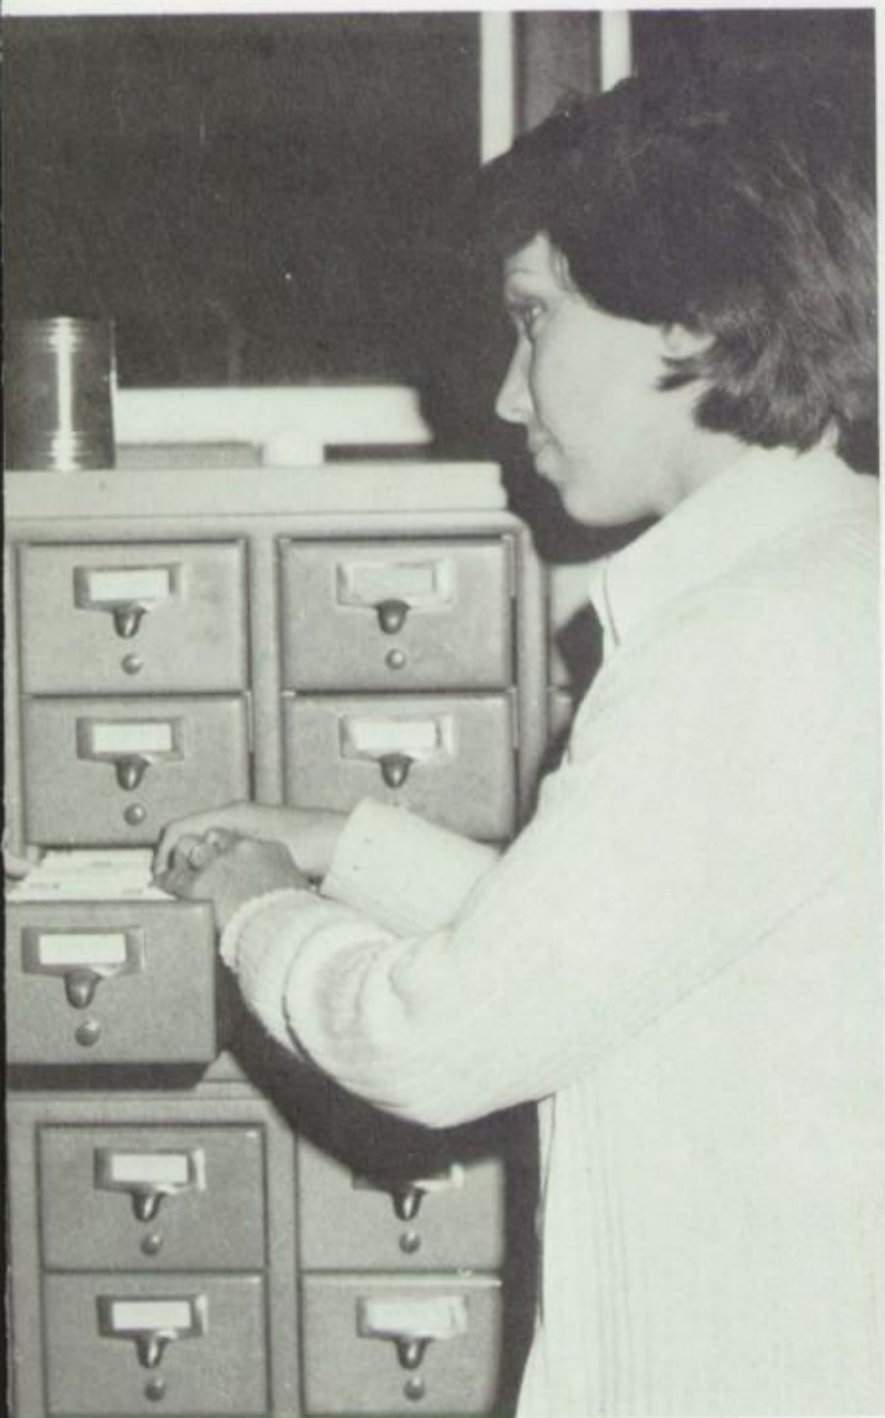

Meanwhile, back in the kitchen, Sister Lucinda along with Sisters "Pepe", and Lydia, are occupied with making enough donuts to last the lunch hours for the day. This is approximately 50,000; 25,000 of which they personally consume to check for freshness, quality, and taste. After all, they do have their reputations at stake. (Steak? No never, but they do serve hamburgers on Thursdays). These fine women have spent many long hours developing their fine techniques. They've even added beef to their beefnoodle this year!

Library, Clerical group form backbone of school

"Research Center" - sounds a bit more down to earth than "library", and at Regina, the importance of research in the library is stressed. Being an integral part of high school education, the library stores volumes of knowledge "free for the taking" by students of any and every class. Under the constant supervision and updating of the library administration and staff, it stays an efficient tool of learning.

Not to be forgotten are the quiet little staff, lurking in cubby-hole rooms, doing their daily necessary duties so happily. They are the Clerical and Attendance staff, keeping track of everything from tuition money to missing students. Without their "down to business" methods, problems would certainly arise.

*T*o a senior, sad is...

The last Contemporary Ethics test... cleaning out your locker... not worrying about term papers... your last assembly... the last smoke in the —... the last run through Notre Dame... forgetting "Regina Mundi"... the last football game... your class ring not fitting anymore... selling your books (if you can) back to Sr. Virginia... not hearing a scooter's wheels... not keeping in touch when you said you would... losing your Regina directory... Graduation Day... but deep down, sad is leaving Regina.

What can you say about the class of '78? A lot! From freshman year, we pledged to be true Reginites, ate a lot of corn, and cheered our big sisters on to a Powderpuff victory.

As we became a year older, our friendship grew stronger. Sophomore Day united us with "Babe" Didrikson Zaharias as our patron, Woodstock as our mascot, and class song, "Do You Know Where You're Going To?"

Settling down for junior year, we were united once again by our class rings. Our mood changed to mellow as we danced under the lights of a Harvest Moon. Potluck was an activity that joined mom and dad, and students for a meal of odds and ends.

Now as Seniors, here we are ... Time cannot be stopped. We long to hold it, to go back to the past, and treasure: Powderpuff rally, rah-rahs, cheerleaders, and oh yes, the players too! The game itself was triumphant, victory was on our side. What next? The hall party celebration, senior trip preparations, Christmas ball, daughter-dad breakfast and daughter-mom dinner. Second semester finals. Oh no, oh yes!! Honors, tassels, diplomas.

It's the End of our Great Beginnings at Regina...

*C*oming to Regina is a big change from grade school. You're no longer the oldest people in the school. You are known as the ever famous "little frosh". But you don't really mind, because you know everyone really cares.

Good-Byes are hard to say for seniors on Graduation Day. Although they're finally out of school, their many friends will go in different directions, and that's sad.

Little sisters have to let their big sisters go, and sometimes that's hard to do.

Saddle shoes and knee socks, everything is bright and new. That's the way everything looked the day we opened our new freshman books. We saw faces, heard new names, and nothing will ever be the same again...

Junior Officers strive for Junior happiness

Knowing that "we may never pass this way again," the class of '79" is determined to make this year a memorable one. Harvest and Ring Ceremony are the biggest, and most looked-forward-to events of the year.

Now that the colors, flowers, and song have been chosen, all is established. The class unity has really grown. The class officers have a lot of responsibility this year.

When the day of Harvest arrives, "individual" planning seems so minute, in contrast to all the planning the officers go through. The hall, the band, and many more things must come out "just right" for Harvest to be a success. Ring Ceremony also requires much planning for everyone involved to have a good time. But when all is over and everyone enjoyed it, all the preparations seem worth it.

Although some may have problems, the class of "79" always comes out as the "tops."

Powderpuff raises spirit and joy for the Juniors

JUNIOR CLASS SONG

*Life, so they say, is but a dream and we let it slip away.
Love, like the setting sun, should be dying,
but it's only just begun!
Like the twilight in the road up ahead,
we can't see just where we're going.
All the secrets of the universe
cast away our fears of all the years come and go,
take us up, always up...
We may never pass this way again,
We may never pass this way again.*

*Love, so they say, are for the fools and we let them get away.
Peace, like the silent dove, should be flying,
but it's only just begun.*

*Like Columbus on the open sea, we must gather all our courage, Sail our ship out on the open breeze,
cast away our fears of all the years come and go,
take us up, always up...
We may never pass this way again,
We may never pass this way again.*

*So, I want to laugh while the laughing is easy,
I want to cry if it makes it worthwhile.
I may never pass this way again, that's why I want it with you.
You make me feel like I'm more than a friend,
like I'm the journey, and you're the journey's end.
I may never pass this way again, that's why I want it with you.*

Two years, and Sophs are still going strong

"To grow together as a class—to be unified." As the year goes on, the sophomore class may reach this goal. We will become closer as we pick our class colors, song, mascot, flower, and poem. We have "Sophomore Day" to look forward to, and before you know it, our Sophomore year will be over, and we will be the Juniors of this high school. When we graduate in 1980, we will always remember one of the best years of our lives, our sophomore year.

Even if people say that sophomore year is one of the best, it may be the hardest. You usually have seven classes, and homework in a lot of them every night. There are a lot of decisions to make every day, and you might get confused making them. Since you face a lot more responsibilities as you get older, you really don't have much free time, and usually end up staying home.

Since the Sophomore class is the biggest class in Regina, you can find them wherever you are.

"I was a child
Who ran full of laughter!
I was a child
who lived for today,
My eyes full of Sunshine,
My heart full of smiles,
I was a child
for a day...

We were the children,
who sang in the morning,
We were the children,
who laughed at the sun
Who listened to those who spoke with their wisdom,

We ARE the

We, the Freshmen class of 1981, believe that this year will be the best ever. The freshmen year is a very special year. The class reps have planned many events for the year. We have our annual Freshmen Induction, which took place Sept. 29. We had a Milk Shake sale, which was a chilling event. Aside from these events, the one that most freshmen like are "Big Sisters, Little Sisters." The Seniors pick little frosh to be their "Little Sister." The Big Sisters are there for little frosh to share their excitement about their new school. They will be there for a shoulder to cry on if you are failing a class, or if you get a referral for having dirty saddle shoes.

Good Luck
Class of 1976

Man is challenged today to excel in almost every endeavor . . . those who do succeed often trace the beginnings of their performance pattern to accomplishment in high school and to those who offered stimulation and inspiration in these formative years. Josten's has long been a partner to these educational leaders in providing a means of motivation and the rewards of recognition, and Josten's products have become tangible symbols honoring perseverance and achievement.

The class ring is representative of the fine traditions of school spirit and unity. The yearbook provides a lasting memento of the year's accomplishments. The diploma is a lifelong record of scholastic success. The graduation announcement heralds this achievement. Awards recognize academic and athletic leadership.

Service Is Our Business

THE CHALLENGE

Blessed is the man, indeed,
Who in this life can find;
A PURPOSE that can fill his days,
And GOALS to fill his mind !

The world is filled with little men,
Content with where they are;
Not knowing joys success can bring,
No WILL to go that far !

Yet, in this world there is a need,
For men to lead the rest
To rise above the "average" life,
By giving of their best !

Would you be one, who dares to try,
When challenged by the task;
To rise to heights you've never seen,
Or is that too much to ask?

This is your day — a world to win,
Great purpose to achieve;
Accept the challenge of your goals
And in yourself, BELIEVE !

You will be proud of what you've done,
When at the close of day;
You look back on your battles, won,
Content, you came this way !
